

Mercian Collaboration Conference 2026 Sponsorship Information Sheet

Introduction

Through sponsoring our annual conference, the Mercian Collaboration offers an excellent opportunity for organisations to support our activities and engage with our membership. The 2026 event will return as an in-person format, providing an exhibition space for sponsors to network with attendees.

Our annual conference attracts delegates from all levels of staff across our 23 member libraries, including directors, senior managers, budget holders, specialists, and frontline team members. This year's conference will also be open to academic library staff from member organisations, further expanding your potential reach.

Sponsorship Packages 2026

Sponsors can choose from one of four packages, as detailed below. Only two Platinum packages are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Payment is typically required within one month after the conference date, although arrangements can be made to accommodate budgetary needs.
