

Managing Undergraduate Reading: Reading lists & reading strategies

Date: Tuesday 16th January 2018

Time: 10.30-15.00

Venue: Newman University, Genners Lane, Bartley Green, Birmingham, B32 3NT

Description: Managing the theory and practice of undergraduate reading is a constant struggle for libraries across the whole university sector.

In this session, presenters from Keele, Nottingham and Newman will share their approaches to areas such as:

- managing online lists,
- assisting students in developing strategies to help them read,
- working with academics to develop strategies to support effective teaching and learning

Time will be included for participants to explore and exchange approaches and share experience.
