

Supporting your users undertaking Systematic Reviews

Date: Wednesday 4th March 2020

Time: 10:30am – 4:30pm (registration from 10:00am)

Venue: Lanchester Library, Coventry University, Gosford Street, Coventry, England, CV1 5DD

Description:

This will be an opportunity to learn more about systematic literature reviews and to share and discuss experiences. The session will discuss what a systematic review is? The role of the library in supporting systematic literature reviews, developing robust search strategies and documenting the search process. There will be hands on opportunities to develop more advanced search strategies and to consider some of the associated software packages.

Audience: This event is aimed at staff with an interest in or experience of systematic literature reviews. You will need experience of searching databases.

Booking: Via EventBrite \(https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/supporting-your-users-undertaking-systematic-reviews-tickets-88647086823\)

Please register before Tuesday 03rd March 2020.

Lunch:

Please note that lunch is not provided. You are welcome to bring your own lunch. Alternatively, the Lanchester Library has a cafe and there are other food shops in the vicinity.

Coffee and Tea will be provided during the day

Travel: Here are full information about travelling as a visitor to the Lanchester Library, including a campus map.

Event Organisation:

This event has been organised by the Mercian Staff Development Group, including Coventry University, Cranfield University, The Open University and the University of Warwick.

For further information contact Chris Bark: e: chris.bark@coventry.ac.uk
t: 07557425528